Cocktail Menu

Whiskey Sour

Created in the 1870's by an English ship captain in Peru this classic drink has been popular for decades with its blend of malt, sour citrus & balanced with the raw sugar sweetness a drink that can be enjoyed at any occasion

$ 12

Why not try some modern variations with an amaretto or Chambord?

Passionfruit Capriosa

A modern twist on this classic summer cocktail it has everything you love the sweet & the sour, but to take it to the next level we've added some fresh passionfruit & a few other little somethings to give you this

Ask the bar staff for the classic or some other variations we've come up with

The Elephant Cup

A mix of everyone's favourite gin Hendricks & Campari, built up with a selection of seasonal fruits & ginger beer to give a beautifully refreshing drink to sip away on in the sun.

$ 14

If you are feeling a bit more traditional why try the Hendricks or Pimms No 1 Cup

French Martini

There is plenty of debate about where & how the original martini was made, but this version should escape debate with its lovely mix of berries & pineapple with a hint of citrus

$ 12

Why not try the classic or another variation

The Long Island Iced Tea

First served in the late 1970s by Robert Butt, a bartender at the Oak Beach Inn, in the Town of Babylon, Long Island, everyone's favorite summer drink gets its name from the close resemblance of its non-alcoholic namesake

$ 17

Why not try it with a little bit of cranberry juice

Frosty Fruit

Everyone's favourite ice cream as a kid, now try the grown ups liquid version

$ 12

Try it frozen to get that real authentic feel
